

DEEP SHAFT IS TO BE DRIVEN

The formation of the Goldfield Deep Mines company by the W. A. Clark and associated interests is taken to mark a new departure in Nevada mining, and especially does it bring about a greater Goldfield. It is estimated that former Senator Clark has expended more in Nevada, than any other individual, his investments in railroads and mines footing up to $3,000,000, according to the estimates now being made.

C. O. Whittemore has issued a statement regarding the organization and purpose of the company just formed, which is as follows:

"The Goldfield Deep Mines company is a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Washington, with an authorized capital of $10,000,000. There are 10,000,000 shares of a par value of $1 each.

"The officers are: J. Ross Clark, president and director; C. O. Whittemore, vice president and director; John Erikson, director, and C. E. Redman, director; Claude M. Smith, secretary and director.

"The corporation has acquired control of the Goldfield Merger Mines company. Besides the 3,000,000 shares of the capital stock of the Goldfield Merger Mines company in its treasury, it has 3,967,000 shares of its own stock in the treasury, with which to acquire additional shares of Merger stock and the stock of other mining corporations.

"The Goldfield Deep Mines company will be a holding company, and the active operations of the Goldfield Merger Mines company and other companies of which it may secure control will be conducted independently of the Deep Mines company.

"The Goldfield Deep Mines company has purchased the entire treasury stock of the Goldfield Merger Mines company, paying into the treasury of the Merger company $250,000, which is on the basis of about 30 cents a share for its treasury stock.

"The Goldfield Merger Mines company has been reorganized and its present officers are: C. O. Whittemore, president; John Erikson, vice president; Claude M. Smith, secretary, and these three, with John M. Grace and W. H. Comstock, are the directors.

"It is the purpose of the Goldfield Merger Mines company to at once begin the development of its property by means of a deep shaft, which will be started at once. This shaft will be a four-compartment shaft and will be continued to a depth of 2,000 feet, from which prospecting will be done, and will likely be located on the Moonshine claim.

"With the exception of John Erikson and Claude M. Smith, the officers of the Goldfield Merger Mines company and the Goldfield Merger Mines company are the officials of the Clark railroad.

"The stock of the Deep Mines company will be exchanged share for share for outstanding stock of the Merger company.

"There are some outstanding shares of the stock of the St. Ives company which is yet to be exchanged for stock of the Merger Mines company, and as soon as this has been accomplished active development work will be started."

Discussing this matter, the Goldfield Tribune says:

"The officers and directors of the Deep Mines company, J. Ross Clark, president, is a brother and the personal representative of the railway and mining interests of Senator W. A. Clark; C. O. Whittemore, vice president of the company, is vice president and general counsel of the Las Vegas & Tonopah railroad; Claude M. Smith, secretary, is the pioneer mining man of the Goldfield district and a larger holder in

DR. BLACK WILL VISIT IN OGDEN

Salt Lake, Aug. 4.—Dr. George V. Black, dean of the Northwestern university of Chicago, and the recognized head of the dental profession in America, arrived in the city yesterday and was royally entertained by the Salt Lake Dental society.

In Salt Lake are many alumni of the Northwestern university and most of them had studied under the tutelage of Dr. Black. The day was marked one for the members of the profession here.

Dr. Black is accompanied by his son, Dr. A. V. Black, who is also a professor in the same university as his father. They left Chicago on Monday, stopped over in Denver and after leaving Salt Lake will stay a day in Ogden and thence go direct to Seattle, where they will take steamer for Alaska for a brief visit to see that country. They will return by steamer to Vancouver and thence home to Chicago by the Canadian Pacific railway.

Dr. Black was met at the train yesterday by Drs. Christensen, Evans and Waddell of the local society and escorted to Hotel Utah. He was taken to the tabernacle, where an organ recital was given and in the afternoon was shown Salt Lake and a dip in the lake, the afternoon programme being in charge of a committee comprising Drs. Springer, E. C. Richards and Stockman. In the evening a banquet was given the distinguished visitor in the grand room of the Commercial club, the committee including Drs. Landon, George F. Richards, Jr., and Bergstrom.

This morning Dr. Black met Governor Stry and later will be received by President Joseph F. Smith of the Mormon church.

The banquet in the evening was of an unusually happy nature, coming as it did on Dr. Black's seventy-fifth birthday. A feature was the presentation to the visitor of a state certificate entitling him to practice his profession in Utah. Dr. Black holds but one state certificate in the Union, as his life work has been largely in the educational side of the profession. The presentation was made by Dr. A. C. Wherry, secretary of the state dental board, during the progress of the banquet.

Dr. George F. Richards officiated as toastmaster, and the address of welcome and introduction to the visitors was made by Dr. Steel, Dr. A. V. Black responding. Speeches were made by Drs. Dalrymple, Weber, White and others, after which an informal reception was held.

Dr. George V. Black, in whose honor the banquet was especially held, spoke briefly to the members of the profession present, urging the cultivation of high ideals.

DISSOLUTION OF MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 4.—Dissolution of eleven mutual fire insurance companies of Philadelphia, brought into court by State Insurance Commissioner Samuel W. McCullough on a charge of operating in a "dishonest and unsafe manner," will be asked in the county court tomorrow.

Testimony showed that the companies which were enjoined from operating last month, have been in the control of one man, David Balaly of Philadelphia, whose income from the concern is estimated at $30,000 to $50,000 annually.

The companies are: George Washington, Metropolitan, Colonial, Integrity, Peoples, Mercantile, Imperial, Loyd, Fairmount, Columbia and Schuykill.

Deputy Attorney General Cunningham charges that the companies were organized and conducted by "dummy" officers and directors.
